

West Weekend

"After the Flood: Day 7" is part of the exhibit of Sloat Shaw's work at Kantar Fine Arts.

Artist's works reveal constancy of change

Sloat Shaw's works are included in Harvard's Fogg Art Museum, the Boston Public Library, and numerous private collections throughout the country.

Special Event This month her works, specifically "The Flood Series," will be on exhibit at Kantar Fine Arts in Newton. Created to evoke a memory of earthly transformations brought on by the biblical Flood, Shaw's paintings on canvas, linen, and wood are often torn and restitched to emphasize the constant change and renewal of nature.

A reception will be held 2-6 p.m. Saturday at the gallery at 382 Kenrick St. The exhibition, on display tomorrow through May 31, is open 9 a.m.-5 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday and by appointment. Admission is free. For more information, call 617-332-7495.
